GOOD WORK IS DONE.
Ephraim, Nov. 3.—Assistant Forester Arthur W. Sampson has finished his work for the season and has left for the east, where he will attend the Johns Hopkins university. Before leaving he made a report of the work which has been done at the government experiment station which is located seven miles east of this city on the Manti national forest reserve. The station was opened last year and is now completed, with an up-to-date water system, a telephone system, a large barn, two residences and a laboratory.

Fences have been built around the entire plot and many grazing and tree experiments have been begun. From eight to twenty men have been employed during the summer, and the material has been hauled from Ephraim.

BOOTLEGGERS PLEADED.
Pocatello, Ida., Nov. 3.—Several bootlegging cases now pending are materially affected by the action of the Idaho Wholesale Grocery company in calling in large quantities of cider which has been distributed to different firms throughout this region. A short time ago Messrs. Harris, Stewart and Mitchell were arrested at Bancroft, charged with the illicit sale of liquor. This liquor was hard cider. Upon analysis it was found that the cider contained enough alcohol to be intoxicating liquor. Upon learning of this the grocery company also analyzed some of the cider and found the same results. Therefore the company has called in all outstanding consignments. Natural fermentation is thought to have caused the extra alcohol.

Attorney General McReynolds Files Brief in International Harvester Company Suit.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 3.—Opposing counsel entered the United States district court here today for the final struggle in the government's suit to dissolve the International Harvester company, as a monopoly in violation of the Sherman law. Members of the court gathered to hear final arguments in the case, filed more than a year and a half ago.

According to an announcement made this morning, after the certificate and report of Special Examiner Robert S. Taylor has been returned to the court, counsel for the government will occupy the entire day and possibly a portion of tomorrow's session in the presentation of arguments. It was indicated that the brief and argument of the defense might take even longer.

Attorney General James C. McReynolds, headed the government counsel.

The Harvester company had on hand a formidable array of counsel led by Judge William D. McHugh of Omaha.

The brief of the government was written by the attorney general himself. Rectifying the history of the organization of the harvester company in 1902, it alleged that the company has controlled since that time about 80 per cent of the trade in the United States in binders, mowers and other agricultural implements and prayed the court to grant an injunction against its further continuation.

After asking for an injunction to insure the restoration of competitive conditions, the brief said:

"In order that the plan may establish a condition of honest harmony with the law, it is imperative that it shall disintegrate the business of the principal defendant in such manner that no two of the disintegrated parts shall be acquired by or come under the control of companies having common stockholders or companies otherwise under common control or influence."

The government contends that the international company was formed for the sole purpose of taking over the interstate business of several companies engaged in selling harvesting implements and that it was in effect the same sort of a combination and monopoly as was condemned in the Tobacco Trust case.

Preliminary Steps.
The steps preliminary to the organization of the Harvester company were taken in July 1902, according to the brief, when Cyrus H. McCormick, Charles Deering, John J. Glessner and William H. Jones, representing the principal harvesting companies and George W. Perkins, then of J. P. Morgan & Company, determined to effect a combination. On July 28, 1902, four of the principal companies executed identical agreements of transfer to W. C. Lane, president of the Standard Trust company of New York, and McCormick and Perkins secured an option for a fifth company, which afterwards was turned into the selling agency of the corporation.

On August 12, the defendants incorporated the International Harvester company in New Jersey with broad powers and the capital stock of $120,000,000 was issued to W. C. Lane. The next day, the brief declares, he delivered them to McCormick, Deering and Perkins, who had been chosen as voting trustees to run the harvester business of the new concern and who held the stock in trust for the individuals who had transferred their property to Lane. The property was immediately conveyed to the new company.

Stock Trust Certificates.
In course of time the three trustees issued stock trust certificates to persons entitled to stock in the new company and under the agreement made between the parties interested exercised all rights and powers of absolute owners of the stocks for a period of ten years. By means of this voting trust, the brief alleges, the power to turn this business was lodged in the hands of a few men and J. P. Morgan & Company and the McCormick and Deering families, who own from 65 to 75 per cent of the company's stock, have been in control.

OLDEST WOMAN DIES.
Kaysville, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Ann Court, the oldest person in Kaysville for several years before her death, died at her home here at 12:15 o'clock this morning at the age of 95 years and 14 days. Her death was caused by general debility and her mind was clear until a few minutes before her death. Mrs. Court was born in Tootsbury, England, and came here with her husband in 1851, since when she lived in Kaysville, most of the time. She had no children, but is survived by an adopted daughter, Mrs. Caroline Webb, and a nephew, George Court, both of whom live here. She and the husband were prominent workers in the Mormon church and were noted for their many acts of charity. Funeral services will be held in the Kaysville meeting house at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

TICKET WITHOUT OPPOSITION.
Kaysville, Nov. 3.—The municipal election here tomorrow will be a quiet affair, as no opposition has developed to the candidates named by the joint conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties. Identical tickets will appear under the emblems of the two parties. The candidates are Heber J. Sheffield for mayor; Walter Cottrell for long-term councilman; W. P. Epperson, John R. Galley and John G. Linford for short-term councilmen; Frank L. Layton for recorder, and Myron W. Phillips for treasurer.

Ephraim, Nov. 3.—The quarterly conference of the South Sanpete stake closed in this city yesterday. Many persons from the county were in attendance. The speakers were Anthony H. Lund, Joseph F. Smith, Jr. and Joseph McMurrin, all of Salt Lake. President Lund discussed the grasshopper situation, which has been a great menace to the farmers. He advised the farmers to exterminate the insects by harrowing the soil in which the eggs are deposited.

NURSES TO INSPECT SALT LAKE SCHOOLS.
Salt Lake, Nov. 4.—Practically every school in the public school system in Salt Lake City will be visited and inspected twice a week by district nurses from the health department under a schedule completed yesterday by Dr. Samuel G. Paul, health commissioner.

Dr. Paul now has four nurses at his disposal for this important work, the closing of the municipal milk station having allowed for the transfer of all nurses to the school work. Thus equipped, he is confident the health department can cope more adequately with conditions in the public schools than ever before.

The work of the district nurses, begun early in 1913, has been manifested concretely in the decrease of contagion among school children and a general lowering of the number of diseases in the city as a whole. With the city now fairly free from disease, he believes an admirably high percentage of health and sanitation can be maintained through the work of the district nurses.

Under the schedule completed yesterday the various schools are divided into four subdivisions, the boundaries of each division being governed by the geographical location of the school buildings. To each division a nurse has been assigned. Miss Carrie Roberts has been given the Franklin, the Jackson, Jefferson, Onequa, Jordan, Poplar Grove, Riverside and Bonville schools. She will visit the Franklin on Mondays at 8:40 a. m. and Thursdays at 12:45 p. m. The Jackson will be visited on Tuesdays at 8:40 a. m. and Fridays at 12:45 p. m. The Jefferson on Wednesdays at 12:45 p. m. and on Fridays at 8:40 a. m. The Onequa, same hours; the Poplar Grove on Mondays at 12:45 p. m. and Wednesdays at 8:40 a. m.; the Riverside on Mondays at 10:30 a. m. and Wednesdays at 10:30 a. m. and Thursdays at 2 p. m.; the Bonville on Tuesdays at 12:45 p. m.

Miss Rose Karous will have the Fremont, Grant, Lincoln and Whittier, visiting the Fremont Mondays at 12:45 p. m. and Wednesdays at 8:45 a. m. and 10:30 a. m.; the Whittier at 8:40 a. m. Tuesdays and 12:45 p. m. Thursdays.

BIG TEAMS READY FOR DAY'S FIGHT

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—While it is still a certainty that there will be some immediate changes in the Yale eleven, the shifts were deferred till today. The delay was caused by the decision of the coaches not to order many of the regulars into practice.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

B. R. ROBBINS ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Brigham City, Nov. 3.—Pedestrians on upper Main street in this city were horrified early in the evening by a man, giving his name as Boon R. Robbins, who attempted to commit suicide by slashing his throat with a razor.

The man stopped on the corner of First South and Main streets, in front of the Compton art gallery, and taking a razor from his pocket, hurriedly drew the sharp blade across his throat, cutting an ugly gash. People who witnessed the ghastly affair hurriedly turned in a police call and Marshal Valentine and others hurried to the scene and took charge of the man, who appeared to be deranged. He was hurried to the Pearce-Brown hospital in this city, and hopes for his recovery are held out, although his wound is a serious one. When the hospital was reached the man was in a talkative condition for a moment, and when asked about himself gave the officers the name of Boon Robbins. The man imagined he was being followed by some one who wanted to do him harm.

When his clothing was searched as means of identification, a card was found addressed to Minnie Batchelder, Ogden, upon which Robbins had commenced to write, and began with "Dear cousin." A letter also was found addressed to D. H. Bond, Sheffield, Tex.

B. R. Robbins, who attempted suicide in Brigham City was in Ogden until after 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Since October 6 he has been residing at the Ogden house, 179 Twenty-fifth street, coming here from California.

According to A. H. Robinson, who has been associated with Robbins since his arrival here, Robbins was not rational at times. Robbins said the man talked of committing suicide on several occasions.

Robbins said that when the two men were in their room together yesterday that Robbins wrote the names of seven women on a piece of paper. "I wonder if that is the tribe following me," is the remark Robbins said his companion made after writing the names.

The name of Miss Minnie Batchelder, whose card was found in Robbins' pocket, was in the list, according to Robinson.

The proprietor of the Ogden house said that Robbins was up at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, but that he did not leave the hotel until after 8 o'clock. While in this city, Robbins was employed as a concrete worker by the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad. It is said he has a brother in Texas.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mix the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents in a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.
